Largest Appropriation Since World War Is Asked For Army

Washington, June 5.—(AP)—A $10,009,655,187 army supply bill—largest single appropriation since World War days—carrying funds to give the Air Corps a total of 40,000 planes was sent to the House by its appropriations committee today with a blunt notice that the huge fund was insufficient.

During secret testimony on the measure made public today, Robert P. Patterson, Undersecretary of War, solemnly told the committee while discussing the vastly expanded plane program that: "We have in the war department a feeling that there will be a military need of all the planes covered by this program."

The undersecretary did not amplify that statement for the record but said that it was estimated conservatively that Germany's current airplane production capacity was 3,000 monthly and that the Nazis already have embarked on a program of utilizing the facilities of conquered countries which would increase her plane capacity to between 4,000 and 6,000 monthly.

Costs Are Mounting
In recommending the $10,000,000,000 outlay to finance the army's greatly expanded activities for the year starting July 1, the committee said it would bring the total of defense appropriations, contract authorizations and recommendations since last July 1 to $80,115,051,142—exclusive of the $7,000,000,000 provided for the lend-lease program and the $6,000,000,000 required to complete the two-ocean navy.

Despite these gigantic outlays, the committee said that barring a slackening of the defense program's tempo, the pending bill would not be adequate for the coming fiscal year because costs already were higher than when the estimates were prepared. The committee pointed out that of the total recommended, $9,826,509,492 was in cash and $183,145,655 in contractual authority.

Some Major Allotments
Some of the major allotments in the bill included $2,650,000,000 for 12,556 additional warplanes, including bombers, pursuit and cargo ships; $1,208,000,000 for pay of the 1,418,000-man army; $45,000,000 for the purchase of 3,000 barrage balloons; $92,000,000 for seacoast defenses, chiefly to begin modernization of those defenses along the Atlantic and Gulf coasts; $245,000,000 for spare engines and parts for bombers; $51,000,000 for continuation of the development of the new Atlantic island bases; $276,000,000 for new military post construction; $402,000,000 for the acquisition of ad-

FDR Recommends Construction of Seaway Project

Washington, June 5.—(AP)—President Roosevelt, saying that "we have no right to take chances with the national safety," recommended to Congress today legislation authorizing immediate construction of the St. Lawrence Seaway & Power project.

Declaring that no comparable power, shipbuilding and transportation facilities could be made available in the time required to construct the project, which would be done jointly with Canada, the President said:

"Production and more production is the keynote of our all-out race for national defense. Electric power and transportation are limiting factors in the production of planes, guns, tanks, and ships.

"The enemies of democracy are developing every hydro-electric resource and every waterway from Norway to the Dardanelles. Are we to allow this continent to be outmatched because short sighted interests oppose the development of one of our greatest resources?"

4-Year Project
Mr. Roosevelt declared he had been advised the project could be built in four years, adding:

"Under emergency pressure it may be completed in less time. I should like to agree with the people who say that the country's danger will be over sooner than that."

"But the course of world events gives no such assurances; and we have no right to take chances with the national safety."

"I know of no single project of this nature more important to this country's future in peace or war. Its authorization would demonstrate to the enemies of democracy that, however long the effort, we intend to outstrip them in the race of production. In the modern world that race determines the rise and fall of nations."

Rejected

Chicago, June 5.—(AP)—Victor J. Karpus failed to get in the army today because of his height—the first man to be rejected for that reason at the Chicago draft induction station.

Karpus, a gas station attendant, stands six feet, eight inches, scales 200 pounds and wears a size 14 shoe. He said he was anxious to volunteer after reading descriptions of army life from his brother Tony, who is six feet, four inches tall and serving an enlistment in California.

Karpus had the "patriotic" draft order number 1776.

36 Selectees from Lee Co. District 1 Report June 17th

The seventh call for draftees from Lee county was issued today the men being ordered to report at the 132nd infantry armory in Chicago, Wednesday, June 18. From the first district offices at the Dixon Armory, 36 names were announced. The draftees will be ordered to report at the Armory at 2 o'clock on the afternoon of Tuesday, June 17 when final instructions will be given. The group will entrain from the North-Western passenger station at 5:14 o'clock the following morning for Chicago, breakfast being served on the train.

Stephen Grygiel was appointed leader of the group of 36 draftees from the Dixon district with three assistants, as follows: First assistant, Russell Emerich Bert; second assistant, Albert Patrick Reynolds and third assistant, Donald Carson Dittmar.

Names of Selectees
The 36 names drawn in the seventh call were announced as follows:

Wilford Stanley Newbury, 478 V; Louis John Eller, 602 V; John Dixon, 485 V; Harold Joseph Wilson, 215; Marvin Lavern Holtz, 328; Daniel Ellsworth Miller, 345; John Oliver Shaulis, 346; John Robert Grove, 370; Albert William Whitebread, 373; John Ulrich Kock, 378; Russell Emerich Bert, 384; Thomas Francis McManis, 385; George Robert Shuck, 391; Curtis Clifford Miller, 392; Stephen Grygiel, 408; Yeshie Carol Bradley, 416; Beuford Fraysher Edmondson, 426; Joseph Brasky, 427; James R. Bond, 429; George Charles Michels, 435; Robert Lee Violett, 454; Leon Vernon Hamby, Arthur Harrison Rippeon, 481; Albert Charles Pettit, 504; Fred Ruppert, 516; Maynard Lee Witmer, 520; Leon Franklin Hubbs, 521; Francis Charles Schuler, 525; Virgil Ralph Fry, 537; Donald Carson Dittmar, 540; Albert Patrick Reynolds, 544; William Louis Pontius, 553; Clarence Phillip Bauer, 559; Orville Lee Joynt, 560; John William Keaves, 563; and Robert Lee Conkrite, 575.

Over 70 Per Cent of Taxes Paid in Lee Co.

Saturday was one of the busiest days in the history of the Lee County treasurer's office, the force working until 6 o'clock in the evening to accommodate late taxpayers and a total of $172,000 was collected in real and personal taxes. This record figure did not include payments made to banks throughout the county, which also reported a thriving business.

Treasurer Ward Miller stated today that collections up to the time that penalties were added, which started Tuesday morning, far exceeded those of last year. He estimated that 70.5 per cent of the total taxes have been paid while at the same period last year the average amounted to 65 per cent.

Attention

The many subscribers to the Dixon Telegraph who have ordered magazines from their carrier need not be alarmed. As these orders must go through a central distributing agency, it takes from two to four weeks before any of the magazines will arrive. If at the end of four weeks you have not received your magazines, please call No. 5, circulation department, give your name and address and we will check on your order.

New CIO Strike in California Delays Work on Warplanes

Congress Hears Demand That President Act Against Strikers

By The Associated Press
A new CIO strike, enforced as the Defense Mediation Board considered the dispute, closed the big North American Aviation Corporation's airplane plant at Inglewood, Calif., today and caused immediate speculation in Washington whether President Roosevelt might take drastic steps to end stoppages in defense industries.

The walkout at North American was the second rejection in 24 hours of proposals of the mediation board.

Roosevelt said in his speech declaring an unlimited national emergency: "A nation-wide machinery for the conciliation and mediation of industrial disputes has been set up. That machinery must be used promptly—and without stoppage of work."

The mediation board was charged by W. P. Goodman, head of the CIO United Automobile Workers local at North America, with "stalling the workers." Management and union representatives in Washington for the mediation conferences met during the morning but recessed as no board representatives could attend.

The mediation board members were in session to determine what action could be taken on the defiance by a west coast CIO lumber workers union of the board's recommendations for settling a strike hampering defense work in the northwest.

Action Demanded
Meanwhile, congress heard new demands for presidential action to end strikes.

Rep. Lambertson (R-Kas) told the house that with the current strikes, "this nation is due to whip itself before it starts to whip anybody else," and called on Roosevelt to take action to stop them. He also asked the house Democratic leadership to call on legislation to require a cooling-off period before a defense strike could begin.

Rep. Ford (R-Calif.) said: "This is the most logical result of the way this situation has been handled with these outlaws" by "such left wingers as Madam Perkins and Hillman."

He referred to Secretary of Labor Perkins and Sidney Hillman, associate director of the OPM.

Fears Fate Like France's
Rep. Rich (R-Pa.) said that Miss Perkins, congressional committee, the President and Congress itself "has done nothing," and urged action before "we find ourselves as France found itself."

In the House, Rep. Voorhis (D-Calif.) commenting on statements by the lumber workers union leader, said it appeared "that you've got a condition of labor that's not going to do labor any good." He said it was a type of leadership "which in my judgment is directed from some other part of the world."

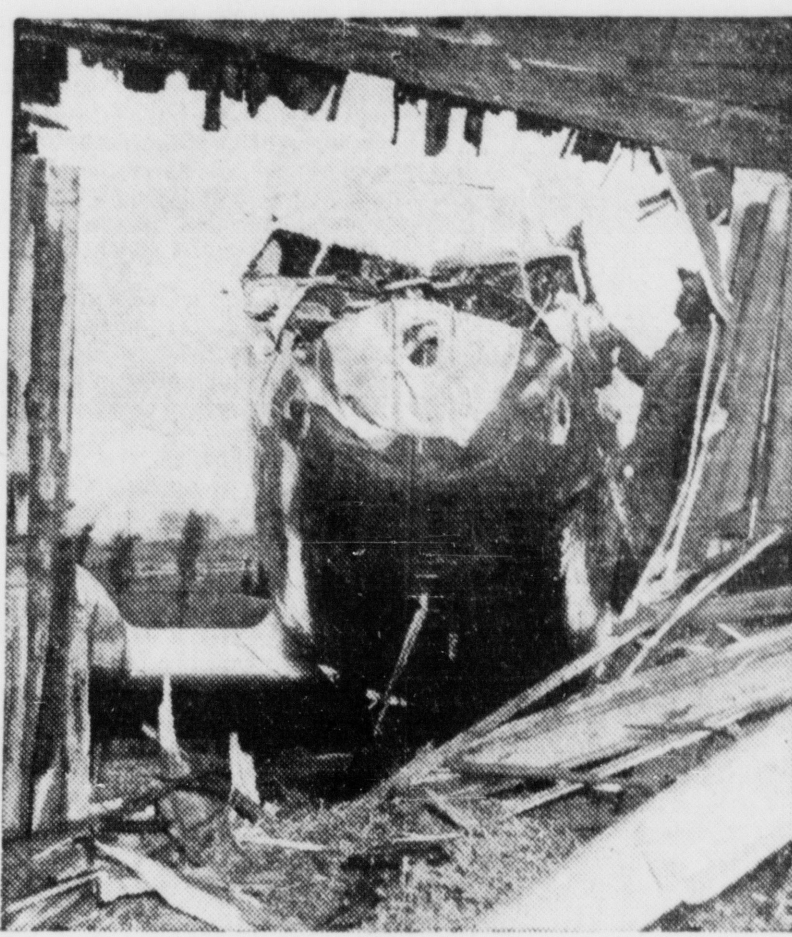

Immediately after the CIO announced its strike call against American officials said the company would hold itself available for negotiations at the request of the board "in an effort to reach an amicable settlement x x x without the stoppage of production in a unit so vital to national defense," but later the firm announced it would not attempt to operate today. Officials said it was the first time since the firm was established in 1928 that it had halted operations because of a labor controversy.

Big Contracts Stopped
The company has $196,000,000 worth of contracts for planes for the United States and British governments. It issued a statement saying it was "surprised and shocked" at the strike call "while negotiations are still in progress before the National Defense Mediation Board."

The statement accused the board of "bulldozing" and "striking."

Restricted Use of Oil Present Need Only in the East

Curtailment of Use Would Be Voluntary Under Present Plan

Washington, June 5.—(AP)—Petroleum Administrator Ickes declared today restrictions on oil consumption in the east was "probable" within a month, and added that he hoped if severe measures become necessary they would be undertaken on a voluntary basis.

The deficiency of oil in the populous east, Ickes said, might become so critical that not only gasless Sundays might be necessary but might mean "that we can't drive for pleasure on any day."

Restrictions now appeared necessary only in the east, he added. Ickes strongly urged immediate application of daylight saving time to the whole country, and criticized C. W. Kellogg, president of the Edison Electric Institute, and chief of power for the Office of Production Management, or his recent statement that "the power situation will be found to have been adequately provided for."

There is a power shortage now, Ickes told his press conference, and it promises to become worse. Returning to what he viewed as impending curtailment of oil consumption in the east, Ickes said the matter was being "definitely discussed" on a patriotic appeal basis "rather than by compulsion."

"It worked out that way the last time," he said, "and it probably would work again."

May Realocate Tankers
Reallocation of America's maritime tanker fleet appeared certain today, in a quick government move to cope with the approaching oil shortage in the east.

Meanwhile, administration leaders sought to get a house vote on the legislation asked by President Roosevelt for expediting the immediate construction of oil pipelines.

Government officials did not indicate, however, to what degree they were hopeful of reducing the prospective scarcity developing from the transfer of one-fifth of the domestic oil tanker fleet to British service.

It was problematical whether the two-fold attack on the emergency.

Legion Convention Here Saturday to Draw Many to City

All American Legion Posts, and their Ladies' Auxiliaries, of the 13th District, Department of Illinois, will meet in Dixon for their annual business and social session on next Saturday, June 7th, with Dixon Post No. 12, and the Dixon Ladies' Auxiliary as the host organizations. All posts in the district, which is composed of Whiteside, Carroll, Jo Daviess, Stephenson, Ogle and Lee counties, are expected to be represented at the sessions.

Registration will be opened at noon at the Loveland Community House for the Legionnaires and at the Church of the Brethren, Third street and Madison avenue, for the ladies of the Auxiliary. The business sessions, for both organizations, will convene at the Loveland building and the Brethren church at 2 o'clock. The sessions of the Legion will be in charge of District Commander Charles Edson of Mt. Morris, and the sessions of the Auxiliary will be under the direction of Mrs. Edith Berga, District Director, of Amboy. In addition to the representatives of the member posts, a large delegation of the department officers is expected to attend. Because of the need of financial support and active assistance being required for the national defense program it was decided to confine this year's convention to business sessions and therefore the usual parade and extra social activities have temporarily been postponed.

Open House
To provide the social aspect of the gathering Dixon Post will hold open House at their quarters all day and evening. All visiting members are invited to call at the quarters when not in attendance at the sessions.

As a mark of respect to the visiting veterans the local merchants and residents of the community are asked to display the country's flag throughout the day. In view of the national emergency and the need of co-operation from those not likely to be called into active service it is probable that the veterans of the World War will be called upon to render home service and all aid from the residents of all communities should be given them.

Surplus Foodstuffs
Available for Many Summer Activities

Chicago, June 5.—(AP)—Foodstuffs supplied by the Surplus Marketing Administration will be made available this year to summer camps caring for underprivileged and underprivileged children on a non-profit basis, the Illinois Emergency Relief Commission announced today.

Summer schools, nursery schools, community centers, and supervised recreational centers operating child feeding programs also will be eligible for aid, said Russell L. Peters, executive secretary of the IERC.

Surplus commodities may not be used to supplant normal food purchases, Peters said.

Camp Construction Projects Hint U. S. Army of 2,800,000

New Billion Dollar Program Revealed by War Official

Washington, June 5.—(AP)—The surprise disclosure that the army was rushing a new billion dollar camp construction program led informed legislators to believe today that the war department had decided to increase the field forces to 2,800,000 men, or double their present strength.

One member of congress with close war department connections said that the new camp program meant "that the international situation is such that it has been deemed wise to prepare for this new emergency that may be approaching our shores."

The first intimation that the program was under way came from the army's construction quartermaster, Brigadier General Brehon Somervell, during testimony before a house military subcommittee yesterday. He was very laconic, however.

Within the previous 24 hours, he told the committee, he had received orders to rush the award of contracts for construction work totalling "about $1,000,000,000." Declining to provide details, he explained that "in some respects these things are military secrets."

Shipping Goal Near
On another defense front, meanwhile, the Maritime Commission moved closer to the 2,000,000-ton goal President Roosevelt set for it several weeks ago when he directed the creation of a special shipping pool in the interest of the defense and British-aid programs.

The commission called upon Atlantic and Gulf coastwise steamship operators to turn over half their tonnage to the pool. Approximately 125 ships with a total tonnage of 750,000 are now in the two coastwise services.

The acquisition of 375,000 tons from this source would put the tonnage earmarked for the pool at about 1,875,000 tons lined up, counting in almost 500,000 tons of refugee foreign shipping which the government would take over under terms of the bill now awaiting Roosevelt's signature.

In summoning the operators to Washington to work out methods for diverting the requested tonnage, the commission said that the diverted coastwise ships would be used to carry strategic materials on both nearby and long voyage routes.

Seek to Avoid Errors
The question of new army camps has been under war department consideration for some time, it was understood, because of the possibility that changing world conditions might suddenly require the housing of additional troops.

Realizing this, congress provided $15,000,000 for preliminary work some time ago with the idea of avoiding the errors and high cost encountered in the original $800,000,000 camp construction program. The army accordingly has been surveying likely sites for 28 new cantonments and it said that 11 locations definitely had been selected thus far.

Construction of 28 new camps would increase the capacity of the army's housing facilities to approximately 3,000,000 troops. If augmentation of the army is necessary, the plan of the high command is to make the first increase to 2,800,000 men.

Body of Unidentified Man Found in River

Dallas city, Ill., June 5.—(AP)—The body of an unidentified man a coroner's jury might have been a slaying victim, was found in the Mississippi river near here last night.

The coroner's jury verdict said cuts on his head could have caused death.

The victim weighed about 150 pounds and appeared to be about 50 years old. He was dressed in a blue serge suit, a khaki shirt, and good black shoes. Fillings in a hip pocket indicated they might have come from a drill press.

Stifling her mother love with her responsibility as a citizen, she told the officers how she had heard her son tell his father during an argument that "I'll take care of

Turkey Hears 2,000,000 German-Rumanian Troops Mass to Attack Russia

The War Today!

(Telegraph Special Service)
(This daily feature, conducted by Dewitt MacKenzie, is being written in his absence on vacation by Fred Vanderschmidt).

Britain must be praying for an Allenby. More than at any time in this war she needs a man of the measure of the conqueror of Jerusalem and Damascus, to deliver the swift and decisive stroke in the Near East which will preserve Turkey as an ally, save the Mediterranean and give heart to the people at home and the friends in the Near East.

Perhaps General Sir Henry Maitland Wilson, the general officer commanding in Palestine and Transjordan, is the Allenby of 1941. Upon Wilson will fall the weight of the strategy and the battle, if Britain decides to move her armies into Syria.

There is no evidence that Britain has made that decision. The order issued today, proclaiming Syria and Lebanon enemy-occupied territory for purposes of blockade, is a formality which recognizes officially the German infiltration of the French mandate, an infiltration which is said now to amount to a division of 15,000 men. This same measure was applied successfully to Rumania, Bulgaria and Hungary, although not as quickly as to Syria.

British bombing of oil facilities in Beirut extends a British policy already laid down by Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden: to seek out and attack the Germans in any French territory, so long as the French continue to collaborate with Hitler.

The bombing does take on added point, however, because Syria is cut off from the Iraq pipeline and the British, by reoccupation of the Mosul area, now are, presumably, in a position to restore the flow of oil to their own depots at Haifa.

Yet the big step, the big risk—a land campaign by the British and Free French against the Germans in Syria and those of the Vichy French army whom the Germans can get to fight—is yet to be taken.

Turkey, for one, seems eager to have the British move into Syria. Today's descendants of the Spahis and the Janissaries appear willing to risk what almost is a certainty. That if the British conquer Syria, the Germans will plunge into Turkey from the north with the overwhelming might of panzers and dive bombers.

The Turks know that if the Germans consolidate their position in Syria to the extent that they can dominate Iraq and Palestine, Turkey will have to capitulate to the axis and to German occupation. But no one can say now, for sure, that the Turks will fail to fight on the Dardanelles and Bosporus if a strong British ally is established on the Syrian border.

The news from Ankara today, indeed, is heartening for Britain, for the Turkish Foreign Minister has told Germany's envoy, Franz von Papen, that Turkey is worried over the arrival of German troops in Syria and that Turkey is taking measures of military security along her Syrian border.

At present, however Turkey, as a non-belligerent, is not to go to war, cannot do very much to stop the ghostly parade of Germans on their way to Syria via Turkish railway tracks. The synthetic German "tourists" complete with Baedeker the phony German refugees, strapping

Low Bidder

Belleville, Ill., June 5.—(AP)—The difference in bids submitted to the city for a contract for furnishing 150,000 lbs. of steel reinforcing for two companies was 3,100 of a cent, and the award was made to the low bidder.

The Gruenwald Hardware Company's bid was 2,687 cents a pound and that of the second bidder, Missouri Rolling Mills Corporation of St. Louis 2,69 cents.

The steel reinforcing will be used for concrete construction of a conduit for the phone closure of the remainder of East Creek.

15,000 Nazis in Syria
The Turkish radio reported that 15,000 German troops had already slipped into Syria, many of them inconspicuously disguised as Jewish refugees, others bandaged and limping like wounded soldiers home from the wars.

Under cover of darkness, the Germans were also reported landing on the Syrian coast from small fishing vessels.

Reuters, British news agency, said that a dozen or more Nazi planes—mostly fighters—were arriving daily in Syria, and that 150 empty transport planes had arrived at Bayrak airbase Monday.

With 500,000 troops in the Middle East under the command of Gen. Sir Archibald P. Wavell, the British moved swiftly to counter the latest German threat. Imperial troops stationed in Palestine, Iraq, and Cyprus were said to have been heavily reinforced in the past few days.

French Role High-Lighted
France's role in the impending conflict was further high-lighted

Britain Appears to be Ready to Move Into Syria

(By The Associated Press)
Vichy reported today that Adolf Hitler and Russia's Premier Joseph Stalin had agreed to use the Soviet Ukraine as Europe's breadbasket, but Ankara heard that German and Rumanian troops—at least 2,000,000 strong—were massing for a June attack on Russia.

An imminent and "far-reaching" event in the Middle East war theater was forecast by reliable London sources late today, according to Canadian press dispatches, and it appeared that Britain was on the point of marching into French-ruled Syria.

Canadian Press said the expected "further development" would be "a definite action where Vichy is cooperating by allowing the Nazis to establish a base."

This pointed directly to Syria, where previous reports have told of the infiltration of Nazi troops, planes and war materials.

An authoritative London spokesman was quoted as saying Britain could not allow Syria to fall under Nazi control.

Coinciding with this thinly-veiled hint that Britain has seized the initiative in the developing struggle in the Middle East, German warplanes were officially reported to have blasted overnight at the main base of the British Mediterranean fleet at Alexandria, Egypt. More than 100 persons were killed.

High-explosive bombs and incendiaries dropped on the city, second biggest in Egypt wrecked many buildings and inflicted numerous casualties, it was announced.

Syria Blockaded
As a prelude to the new conflict, Britain clamped a blockade on Syria and neighboring French-mandated Lebanon, declaring them "enemy occupied territory" and potential bases for Adolf Hitler's blitz legions to strike at Palestine, Cyprus and the Suez canal.

Meanwhile, diplomatic circles in Vichy said they had received unconfirmed reports that Hitler, Stalin, in a secret meeting, had agreed on the use of Russia's vast Ukraine granaries as Europe's breadbasket in a vast new plan of collaboration between Europe and Africa.

Possibly linked with this somewhat mysterious program was a report by the Berlin radio that Premier Mussolini would make "an important declaration" tomorrow at an extraordinary meeting of the fascist council in Rome.

Zero Hour Thought Near
Powerful squadrons of the British fleet were reported massing off the Syrian coast, and all signs indicated that the "zero hour" of a vast new struggle was now very near.

The London radio reported that "French-type" planes bombed the capital city of Amman, in British-mandated Transjordan, as a reprisal for the British bombing of gasoline stores at Beirut, Lebanon.

The radio said the attack supported belief that "French-type" planes seen flying from Rhodes to Syria were manned by German pilots.

Turkey watched the crisis with mounting anxiety. Turkish Foreign Minister Sukru Saracoglu was reported to have informed German Ambassador Franz von Papen of Turkey's concern over the asserted debarkation of German troops in Syria.

Saracoglu told the Nazi envoy that Turkey was prepared to take additional security measures along her southeast frontier, facing Syria and Iraq, responsible sources in Ankara said.

Ringling Question Jarring Britons Amid Swelling Talk About Invasion

London, June 5.—(AP)—A ringling question jarred Britain today amid swelling talk of invasion in high places and low.

Illinois Senators Favor Payment for State's Militiamen

Substantial Majority of Upper House Put Names to Bill

Springfield, Ill., June 5.—(AP)—A $1,246,116 appropriation bill to pay the 6,000 officers and men of the state's newly-organized reserve militia received the backing of 40 senators today.

Senator T. Mac Downing (R-Macomb) and 39 other senators—a substantial majority of the upper chamber—put their names on the bill despite Governor Green's failure to include the big appropriation in his $497,000,000 budget.

Downing said, however, that he had consulted the governor before introducing the bill and added that he did not believe the chief executive would oppose the measure.

Under the provisions of the bill officers would be paid an allowance of $250 a year and enlisted men would be paid $1 for each weekly drill.

The controversial University of Illinois 1942-43 biennial appropriation bill was sent to the house today from the senate, which passed it 49 to 0, providing for expenditures during the next two fiscal years by the institution $238,000 in excess of Governor Green's budget allotment.

In its present form, the bill totals $17,705,000, a reduction of $250,000 from its original amount of $17,955,000, but still above the $17,467,000 limit set by the governor.

An attempt to cut the bill to conform with the administration budget failed in the senate.

Teachers' Bill to Senate

The house also passed and sent to the senate the Garman-Collins bill to raise requirements for teachers certificates. Under the bill, sponsored by the Illinois Education Association, teachers in elementary, kindergarten and primary grades would be required to have two years of college training—instead of one as at present—for admission to examination and then would be required to continue summer school work until they receive the equivalent of a bachelor's degree.

High school teachers would be required to have credit for two years of college training, instead of two at present. The bill would not affect teachers now holding certificates but would apply only to those seeking certification of July 1, 1945.

Green Signs Tax Bill

The administration bill doubling present state taxes on liquors and beer sharply increasing levies on wines was signed late yesterday by Governor Green and will be effective July 1.

Estimated to produce $9,500,000 yearly in revenue, the bill boosts the gallonage tax on liquors from 50 cents to one dollar, on beer from two to four cents, one wine of 14 per cent or less alcohol from 10 to 15 cents a gallon and on wines above 14 per cent alcohol from 25 to 40 cents a gallon.

The liquor bill was the last remaining item of legislation in the governor's $23,000,000 a year program of new taxation to partly make up for the expected $33,000,000 annual revenue drop to follow reduction of the sales tax rate from three to two per cent July 1.

Also signed by the governor was a bill appropriating $148,000 to the finance department to cover the cost of administering the new three per cent oil production tax.

West Brooklyn

Cooking School

A cooking school and demonstration of electrical appliances will be held at St. Mary's hall on Wednesday evening, June 11, at 7:30. Ruth Miller of Mendota, home service adviser for the Illinois Northern Utilities Co., will conduct the school. This company will also furnish equipment for the demonstration. This school is being sponsored by Circle 6 of St. Mary's Altar and Rosary society. A small admission will be charged for the benefit of the circle. A lunch will be served, also a valuable door prize will be given away. The public is invited to attend.

Pictures on Display

Two very fine aerial pictures of the village of West Brooklyn are on display at the H. F. Gehant Banking Co. One picture was taken at a height of 200 feet, showing the south half of the town while the other taken at 1000 feet is a view of all the village. Mr. Sunny, a personal friend of Victor Sussan, was the photographer. Mr. Sussan, a relative of Mr. Meyer of this place, designed the camera which was used to take the pictures.

Club Meets

Miss Sylvia Clopine was hostess to the Happy Housewives club at her home on Wednesday afternoon. In 500 prizes were won by Mrs. Tress Gehant and Mrs. Kate Gehant. Mrs. Bertha Bresson won a contest prize. A lovely luncheon was served. This party will conclude the club activities until fall.

Silver Thimble Club

Members of the Silver Thimble club spent Thursday in Aurora where they enjoyed their annual picnic dinner at Phillips park. In the afternoon the party attended a matinee with their evening luncheon at Waterman. Mrs. Marge Fassig of this place was one of the ten ladies making the trip.

Guests at Meyer Home

Mrs. L. W. Donnelly, son and daughters of Anoka, Minn., stopped for a short visit at the F. W. Meyer home. Mrs. Donnelly who is a niece of Mr. Meyer was enroute to join her husband at Watts Bar Dam, Tenn., where he is in charge of the construction of a power plant, a T. V. A. project.

KIDNEYS MUST REMOVE EXCESS ACIDS
Help 15 Miles of Kidney Tubes Flush Out Poisonous Waste
If you have an excess of acids in your blood, your 15 miles of kidney tubes may be overworked. These tiny filters and tubes are working day and night to help Nature rid your system of excess acids and poisonous waste. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Kidneys may need help the same as bowels, so ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Urges Commanders To Enlist Draftees for Three-Year Service

Washington, June 5.—(AP)—The war department emphasized to corps area commanders today the desirability of enlisting selective service trainees, where possible, for full three-year terms of service with the army.

The department sent out instructions listing the sources of regular army enlistments in order of preference.

Reenlistment of regular soldiers was given first rating. The enlistment of trainees who "have demonstrated that they are qualified" for regular army service received second place and regular recruiting of civilians was put third.

Selective service men under the law are inducted for a one-year training period. War department officials said that a few already have been enlisted for regular terms of service, and the publication of today's instructions indicated the possibility that corps area and other army unit commanders over the country might put renewed emphasis on enlistment of these men.

New York ranks as the first manufacturing state with 34,514 factory establishments annually producing goods valued at more than seven billion dollars, census statistics show.

GEORGE WASHINGTON SAID:

"Excessive partiality for one foreign nation and excessive dislike of another cause those whom they actuate to see danger only on one side, and serve to veil and even second the arts of influence on the other. Real patriots who may resist the intrigues of the favorite are liable to become suspected and odious, while its tools and dupes usurp the applause and confidence of the people to surrender their interests." From the Farewell Address.

A Thought For Today

And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, according to all that his fathers had done. —II Kings 23:37.

Evil and good are God's right hand and left. —Bailey.

Labor Should Clean House

"Can we stop the exploiters of certain strategic unions who are raising consumer prices, throttling small business and defeating the ends of labor itself?" asks Thurman W. Arnold, head of the Anti-trust Division of the Department of Justice, in this month's Reader's Digest.

In his article, "Labor's Hidden Holdup Men," he says, "The labor problem I am most worried about doesn't get headlines and the public doesn't know what is happening. That is why it is the most dangerous of all." He describes a number of methods by which unions exploit consumers unmercifully, such as teamsters who make every truck entering their city take on an unnecessary man who gets $9 a day for doing no work; electricians' unions who insist that, whether needed or not, a full-time electrician be hired on any construction job using temporary power or light; milk drivers' unions who prohibit selling milk at lower cost to consumers willing to buy it at stores; and other equally incredible examples of unions telling consumers what and from whom they can buy and how much they must pay, and ruining the small business men.

Mr. Arnold can find no evidence that labor wants this sort of thing, but "when individuals do protest, unscrupulous leaders have ways of punishing them." He gives the example of two union members in their fifties, who being dissatisfied with the management of their union had protested, and were expelled and persecuted by the union to the extent of being unable to find work again. Some unions, he adds, are making big money out of fees for working permits and exorbitant admission fees. "This sort of thing is not democracy. It must not be allowed to spread."

Big Job

The question of government price control has been much in the headlines of late. The problem of just how far the government will eventually have to go to keep prices within justifiable bounds, remains unsolved. In the meantime, important voluntary price control action has been taken by the retail industry.

Retailers in all lines long ago realized the danger of price inflation resulting from war abroad, with its dislocating effect on world economy, and our unprecedented defense program at home which is releasing billions of dollars in a relatively short period of time. So, led by the chain systems, they decided to do all they could to keep prices in line. They pledged themselves to fight profiteering. They pledged themselves to make further efforts to reduce overhead costs and narrow marketing spreads. They pledged themselves to buy normally, so as to not unnecessarily disturb the wholesale markets. They pledged themselves to inform consumers of true conditions, in order to prevent hysterical buying.

You can see the fruits of this wise policy today. The cost of necessities has generally risen very little, and nothing resembling a price inflation has appeared. The cost of distribution continues to go down, and the producer continues to receive a rising proportion of the final selling price of his product. In short, the American standard of living is being maintained during a time when the standard of living of other nations has dropped to rock-bottom.

Your retailer, whether he operates a chain store or an independent store, is doing a big job in your interest. He's working harder than ever to help make your dollar buy as much as possible. That job deserves national recognition.

We Lose a Room

Somewhere back along the last 15 years, the average American house has lost a room.

Averaging data from 83 principal cities, the Mortgage Bankers association finds that the usual new house being built today has five rooms, whereas 15 years ago it had six.

Smaller families is the answer that instantly springs to mind, but there may be another reason. For one thing, it has become unfashionable to have more house than is actually needed. The "parlor," locked up and unused except for funerals and big parties, is out of favor.

If we can get built the thousands of new homes the country needs, nobody will worry much over the fact that they may be of five rooms instead of six.

But some folks are starting now to do a little work so they'll be missed while they're on vacation.

Monocle sales up 50 per cent. Must be due to refugees. Americans still look at things in the same old way.

A person who butts in usually is the goat of an argument.

We're for everybody aiming high except the fellows who set prices.

Washington, June 4—Some people have been putting 2 and 2 together and getting peace rumors. Their arithmetic is denied and denounced by every official authority. What the rumor circulators are putting together are: The arrival of Herr Hess in England, the quietness of the British about it of late, the subsequent Hitler meetings with Darlan, then with Mussolini, and now the flight home of our ambassador to London, Mr. Winant.

One minor government man who knows nothing about it has stimulated speculation here by wanting to bet there would be peace within 30 days. But the only bet that can be safely made is that peace now would mean German victory. The British military situation, to all outward appearances at least, is nowhere near that surrender point.

Vague informal peace negotiations are nearly always being carried on indirectly in all wars. They rarely reach fruition until one side has clearly established a victory.

A negotiated peace now could not conceivably clarify our defense problem, but would only intensify it. For these several reasons official interest in the subject is not yet evident here.

The all-power bill (giving the president the right, theoretically at least, to take the shirt from your back or the gold from your teeth) was written in the war department last March. There, they say, they have nothing specific in mind for which the bill is designed. It was merely written with advice from the White House bundling up the wartime powers given Woodrow Wilson in 14 or 15 different bills. . . . EDR sent it to congress now to implement further his defense action speech. . . . It takes a long time to get such things through congress and the war department lawyers, as well as the White House, wanted to be prepared for any future requirements. . . .

This is a good story, and no doubt true except that it will be a long, long, long time before congress will pass that particular bill. Restrictions are expected. One, fixing a time limit on the powers, will be accepted by the war department, but congress will adopt other restrictions which may not be acceptable.

What the framers of the legislation have in mind, they say, are primarily patents and cross-license cases. The necessity of taking control of communications, railroads and possibly utilities in the future is likewise foreseen. The bill has nothing whatever to do with acquiring land. Some difficulties were encountered with land acquisition in Caroline county, Virginia and Camp Stewart, Georgia, but all these have been adjusted.

Individual British troops who escaped from Crete have reported the Germans were doped to a fighting fury for the attacks, but you are not likely to see that suggestion offered officially. What the nazis had eaten that made them mad was nothing more dopey than Hitler propaganda.

Being the aggressor, Hitler can concentrate his few most enthusiastic troops at the point of attack. The defenders can not. Stimulants are frowned upon by all military strategists, presumably including the nazis. Stimulation lasts only a few hours, and the hangover reaction would make troops far less efficient for a considerable period afterward.

A few readers have written expressing amazement at the recent disclosures in this column concerning army deficiencies and inefficiencies. They contend that the informing of the people on the deplorable state of their defense lends comfort to Hitler.

Their letters came simultaneously with news that the British air chief in the eastern Mediterranean had been kicked out and up to home defenses after the fall of Crete. If he had been subjected to enough criticism to have built some underground airports, Crete would be in British hands today.

This column is working on the conviction that the disclosure of defects will cause their correction. Any American who today says all is well with our defenses is not fooling Hitler, but paving the way for him. Any reporter who conceals defense defects and thereby lets them continue, is helping the cause of this nation's enemies more effectively than a paid saboteur.

Today's criticism: All three of the tank factories now producing this most vital defense implement are unprotected except by wire fencing, although dozens of private airfields from which planes can be rented, are within a few miles.

Not Able to Determine Effectiveness of U. S. Naval Patrol of Ocean

Washington, June 5 — (AP)—Secretary Knox said yesterday the navy had been unable to determine yet whether expansion of the American naval patrol had substantially reduced the effectiveness of German submarine operations.

Knox said the Germans were claiming a tremendous number of sinkings while the British have contended the true figures were much less. He added, "hitherto the British have generally been right." To this Knox added the explanation that "we haven't had time yet to tell just what the results are" of expansion of the United States patrol.

Extension of U. S. Atlantic operations has been under way for many months, but last week it received new impetus from President Roosevelt, who declared that whatever methods necessary would be taken to assure delivery of American munitions to Britain.

STATE SENATOR RECOMMENDS NEW COACH FOR UNIVERSITY

Springfield, Ill., June 5. — (AP)—State Senator John W. Fibley, Pana Democrat, doesn't mind voting for the $17,700,000 for the University of Illinois appropriation but he thinks some of the money should be spent in developing a good football team.

"They're spending millions and they've got a coach who can't win a game," Fibley complained to the senate during a roll call on the appropriation bill.

"I wish the athletic council and the board of trustees would get together and stop passing the buck. I recommend, as an alumnus of the university, that they get us a football coach who can produce a good football team the U. of I."

ARMY ALLOCATIONS

Chicago, June 5. — (AP)— Approximately $3,400,000 was allocated during May for additional construction on army projects in Illinois Michigan and Wisconsin. Lieut. Col. E. C. Hayden, sixth zone construction quartermaster, reported today.

More than $1,800,000 was allocated for work at the Savanna, Ill., ordnance depot, $166,902, for Fort Sheridan, $44,100 for the Rock Island, and $77,086 for Camp Grant.

County Officials Fight Passage of Child Aid Bills

Springfield, Ill., June 5. — (AP)—The Illinois Association of County Officials sought today to organize a protest by county and township officials against a series of legislative bills, endorsed this week by Governor Green, to revise and expand the state program of aid to dependent children.

Officers of the association said they had sent letters to approximately 3,000 county and township officials throughout the state urging them to come to Springfield when the aid-to-dependent-children bills come up for consideration in the house, probably next week.

Supported by the American Legion and several other organizations the bills would appropriate $16,000,000 for an enlarged child-aid program during the next two years, half the money to be supplied by the federal government under the social security act.

The state association of county officials has gone on record against the bills because they would transfer control of child-aid from county courts to county welfare departments under state public welfare department supervision.

The association in its April convention here adopted a resolution condemning the measures as "contrary to the principles of American constitutional government."

Officials Charge "Racket"

Governor Green on Monday, however, threw his support to the bills after a conference with Republican legislative leaders. The governor proposed that the state's $8,000,000 share of the appropriation could come from the proposed $62,000,000 regular relief appropriation for the biennium.

The organized county officials in their resolution asserted that the measures were "drafted by and for the social welfare workers' racket of the state, using several state organizations and the director of the department of welfare as a front."

The county officials' association is headed by Edward Scheibel, Streator, president, and James Cannell, Rockford, executive secretary. Among affiliated groups are the state associations of township supervisors, county commissioners, county treasurers, circuit, probate and county clerks, county recorders and sheriffs.

In line with Governor Green's endorsement of the child-aid bills, the house appropriations committee yesterday gave them a "do pass" recommendation and sent them to the house floor.

● SERIAL STORY

FOOTSTEPS IN THE FOG

BY ELINORE COWAN STONE

COPYRIGHT 1941, NEA SERVICE, INC.

YESTERDAY Deborah and Stephan spent a happy spring, studying, dancing. But there is no mention of love, no kisses. Angela continues her warnings. Then one night she comes home from the movies, tells Deborah she saw newsreels of a recent Band meeting, which ended in a riot. "And who do you suppose was there?"

GOODBY TO DREAMS

CHAPTER IV

"It was nobody in the world," Angela announced triumphantly, "but your beautiful, golden-haired Stephan."

The cold cream jar slipped from Deborah's fingers and shattered against the leg of a chair.

In a moment, however, she was able to say with an almost convincing laugh, "Not really? . . . I'll never doubt again that you have second-sight, Angie. . . . Well, did he get arrested?"

"I don't know. The news flash didn't last that long."

Angie spoke with heart-felt regret.

Then as she looked from the gobs of cold cream that splattered the floor to Deborah, her face suddenly puckered like that of a child who knows that he has been naughty, and her voice went flat. "I—just thought you ought to know," she blurted, "I mean—oh, Deb, I'm so sorry!"

BUT after the lights were out, Deborah did not sleep. Instead, she lay rigid, following with wide eyes the rippling pattern cast upon the ceiling by the headlights of passing cars.

"Angie," she said suddenly into the darkness, "I've been trying to remember—what was that jingle the Portuguese fishermen on the Cape used to sing about the fog?" When Angela only murmured in drowsy protest, she insisted, "But of course you remember. . . . Something about the fog—always claiming its own, wasn't it?"

"Oh—that?" Angie yawned. "Just some superstitious nonsense. . . . Let's see—translated very freely, it goes something like this:

"'Ill fated is that which comes out of the fog, for—just a moment—for always in the end, it must return whence it came. And never—there's some more, but I can't recall it at the moment.'"

"I wonder what it means—if anything."

"If anything" is right. For Heaven's sake, go to sleep!" But then, all of a sudden, Angie was wide awake, too.

"What made you ask that, Debby?" she demanded.

"Oh—why, just something I'd been reading. I suppose," Deborah improvised lamely.

NEXT day was the last meeting of the Shakespeare seminar. . . . And next day, Stephan did not come to class at all. He had not made any engagement with her for that evening. All the next day, while Deborah was packing to go home, she listened for the telephone, thinking that he would call—at least to say, "Goodbye!" But he did not.

Not that it mattered, she kept telling herself. Except that all along, knowing Stephan had been lying, reading a fascinating tale, which led you on and on without really telling you much, but which you followed eagerly from chapter to chapter because of its implied promise of exciting revelations to come. . . . Well, now the story had simply stopped—without even a "To Be Continued."

That Stephan was German, she had always taken for granted, although he had never said so in so many words. But that he could possibly be all those other things that Angie believed of him had been—just funny—until that evening when Angie had come home from the theater with her monstrous story. . . . From any one but Angie, the story would have been incredible, but whatever might be Angie's faults—curiosity, impertinence, even sometimes malicious mischief—she would not lie.

THE next morning Deborah and Angela started back to Cape Cod in the little car they had driven to California.

The old Lovett house sat just across the street from the water front. The opposite lot, running down to the shore, had been kept as an open parkway, so that the early, seafaring Lovetts might always have an unimpeded view of the ocean they loved. . . . The house had been built in the golden days when Yankee clipper ships sailed the Seven Seas, and fleets of fishing smacks still kept the shipyards and wharves of the old town busy.

The structure was of white frame with green shutters. Originally a modest two-story building, after repeated additions by generations of Lovetts, it now rambled through unpredictable passageways and eels, up and down steps from one level to another.

almost legendary clipper, the Bonnie May, still stood guard, a wreath in one hand, a gilded trumpet in the other, peering—a bit self-consciously, it had always seemed to Deborah—out to sea.

When you wished to enter the house, you announced your arrival with a ringing peal on the old ship's bell over the doorway. On the upper floor, outside the "Master's room," where Lovett skippers had slept for generations, was the "Captain's walk," a semi-circular glassed-in porch overlooking the harbor. Here, Deborah's grandfather, Admiral Benjamin Lovett, U. S. N., retired, had stood his last lonely watch.

The long living room, paneled with mahogany from the cabin of another Lovett ship, occupied the front wing of the street floor. It was a quaint, shabbily charming room. From the carved teakwood screen and table from Singapore, the Chinese rugs and Japanese prints, the models of Lovett clipper ships, the Oriental tapestries, the ship's clock, the old bronzes, and the massive fire-dogs that guarded the hearth—to Great-Aunt Deborah's samplers and hooked mats, the room had changed but infinitesimally within Deborah's memory.

DEBORAH drove up to the gate just in time for lunch.

Bridge Lanahan welcomed her from the stoop with a flirt of her apron. She was a stout, weather-beaten woman of 55, blustery as a Cape Cod gale, with an equal capacity for high-handed bullying and loyalty.

"Well, God be praised!" she paeoned above the roar of the motor. "Mind the petunias! Miss Debby. 'Tis within an eyelash of thim yer wheels are. . . . Lave the car where she stands, and come to lunch afore me soufflé's flat entirely."

At Deborah's plate was a heap of mail. As she rifled through it, her heart hesitated—then leaped. . . . Half-way down was an envelope addressed in Stephan's bold hand.

It was a short letter. He had been unhappy, Stephan wrote, not to have seen her again. He had been called away so suddenly that he had not even had time to telephone her. He had hoped, when he came East, to call on her as he had been good enough to suggest; but circumstances had arisen which made it impossible for him to foresee his movements far in advance. . . . She had been exceptionally kind to him—

"DAD'S PATROL" TO TURN CARPENTERS AT CAMP RALSTON

Camp is the all-important thought uppermost in the minds of Dixon Girl Scouts and Brownies, as the date for the opening of Camp John Ralston draws near. On Sunday afternoon, the newly-organized "Dad's Patrol" of the Scout council has promised to meet at the camp to erect a footbridge over Clear creek for the convenience of the 1941 contingent of campers.

Families of the "patrol" members expect to accompany the workmen to camp and will remain for a picnic supper. Other Dixon families interested in assisting with pre-camp preparations are invited to join the group.

Comprising the "patrol" are W. E. Beamblossom, Wallace Elfrson, Dr. W. A. McNichols, P. J. Malay, Ben B. Billinger, Gerald Jones, Elwin Bunnell, Dwight Chapman, and James Cleidon.

Horace Becks Are Motoring to New York

Horace J. Beck and his bride, the former Miss Elizabeth Haka, are motoring westward toward New York to make their home at Warsaw. The bridegroom, a former Rochelle resident and brother of Miss Zula Beck of Grand Detour, is superintendent of the Heston Canning company at Wyoming, N. Y.

The couple pledged their wedding vows at 4:30 p. m. Saturday at the Finnish Lutheran church in DeKalb. Dr. A. A. Rautalahti performed the ceremony before an assemblage of relatives and friends from Dixon, Ohio, Grand Detour, Rochelle, Sycamore, and DeKalb.

Mrs. Romeo Caron of Rochelle was her sister's matron of honor, and little Bonnie Hake of Sycamore was flower girl. John Haka of Tiffin, Ohio, brother of the bride, served as best man. Ushers included John Emil Haka, Jr., of Tiffin, Ohio, and Jack Haka of Sycamore. Uno Haka gave his sister in marriage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Fargo hotel in Sycamore. Forty guests were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Beck were heading eastward on Monday.

TO IOWA CITY

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pruitt expect to leave Saturday morning for Iowa City to spend the summer. Mr. Pruitt, principal of the North Central grade school, has enrolled for an eight-week summer course at the University of Iowa, working for a master's degree in education.

AT HOME

FACULTY GOLF TOURNAMENT

How to be unpopular in one easy leap: Merely disclose the golf scores of the high school faculty members! Yesterday in the annual high school faculty tournament at Plum Hollow course Marvin Winger, history teacher and coach of sophomore football and track, took the honors with low card of 59 and 41 for 91. Dutch had three pars in a row on the back nine. John Torrens, county superintendent of schools, Golf Coach Fridolf Lundholm and Coach C. B. Lindell tied for second place honors. Torrens carded 46 and 47 for 93, Lindell 47 and 46 for the same total, and Lundholm matched them with 48 and 45 for 93. Principal B. J. Frazer also cracked the 100 mark when he counted three pars in a 49 and 46 for 95. Other scores were: L. V. Slothower 58 and 56 for 114, A. C. Bowers 58 and 66 for 124 and Calvin Castle 71 and 65 for 136.

NUMERAL WINNERS

Bill Moser of Dixon won his numeral sweater as a member of the freshman golf team at Beloit college this year and Charles Schuler, also of Dixon, was accorded similar recognition as a member of the freshman tennis team.

ASKS FOR GAMES

Although no action toward forming a girls' softball team here has been reported, there are inquiries already from out of the West-clois Softball association of LaSalle writes to ask if there are teams in Dixon and adds that his association will pay expenses for teams coming to Westclois field at Peru.

DIXON SOFTBALL BEGINS TONIGHT

Tonight's the night! The Dixon Softball League opens its 1941 season in a double bill at the Airport where Nachusa and United Cigars meet in the first game and Three Deuces and Reynolds in the nightcap. From all pre-season indications it looks like a snappy summer ahead with six well-balanced teams on the docket.

OVER THE BOUNDING MAIN

Frederick B. Aydelotte of this city, was scheduled to leave New York City today for Panama, Puerto Rico and Trinidad, according to word received by his friends. Frederick is in the medical department assigned to the army transport service for duty on the transport Kent, as sick and wounded clerk, it was learned. The ship was scheduled to leave for the southern Atlantic ports today. Frederick who has been in training at Brooklyn, N. Y., in a recent letter to Dixon friends, stated that he met Eugene Tilton, a former Dixon high school student and a fellow member of a football squad here. Tilton, the letter stated had completed a course of training as an airplane mechanic and was to leave soon for Panama, where he was to be stationed.

PLAN EASTERN TRIP

Coach and Mrs. L. E. Sharpe and daughter, Jane, will leave this week end for New Jersey. Accompanying them will be Mrs. Sharpe's sister, Mrs. E. J. Sand and her daughter, Janeen, who have been visiting here. The Sharpes plan to return to Dixon sometime near the end of the month.

TRIPPING THE LIGHT FANTASTIC

The second dance of the season for members of Plum Hollow golf club is planned for Saturday night at the clubhouse with dancing from 8 until wee hours. These affairs are becoming increasingly popular with the members following the successful events of last year.

KITH AND KIN

C. B. Lindell's nephew, John, was the winning pitcher when the Newark team defeated Baltimore, 9 to 2, recently. Lindell allowed seven hits, struck out three and walked two. In the game with Jersey City Lindell got three hits in four trips to the plate and as winning pitcher (19 to 2) he allowed nine hits, walked three and whiffed three.

PLUM HOLLOW IMPROVEMENTS

Plans are afoot for an outdoor fireplace and grill to be built at Plum Hollow Golf and Country club. Included in the project are three picnic tables to complete the improvements and to furnish members a place to unpack their box lunches, etc.

KNACKS PRACTICE TONIGHT

Dixon Knacks who meet Mt. Morris Cardinals here at Reynolds Field Sunday afternoon will hold a practice session tonight at 5:30 at Reynolds Field.

NEW GREEN IS READY

Members of Plum Hollow will be permitted to play on the new No. 9 green for the first time today, according to a report from Frank Randall. Em Rorer yesterday initiated the new par 3 hole by scoring a deuce. He pitched the ball right on the green on the first shot. Distance—180 yards!

LEO ALLEN ON THE MOUND

Representative Leo E. Allen, Republican from Illinois, will pitch for the Statesmen in the softball game at Griffith Stadium in Washington Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Lowell Thomas will bring his famous team of "Nine Old Men" to play the Statesmen. Representative Allen is reported to be working each day with his secretary, Lois O. Snader of Dixon at improving his flinger with gym drills. He promises to strike out former Postmaster General "Jim" Farley on three fast ones unless "Babe" Ruth agrees to strike out at least once. Allen says, "He has always wanted to have the honor of striking out 'The Babe'." Walter Johnson will pitch for the "Nine Old Men." Clark Griffith will do the umpiring. Vice-President Wallace will coach the bases for the Statesmen. Mrs. Roosevelt will head the dignitaries. The United States Marine Band will furnish the music and entertainment. Although this softball game is not for any National Championship, it is for charity and for the enjoyment of the players and the public. Lineups are: Statesmen: Rep. Allen, Ill., p; Speaker Rayburn, Tex., ss; Minority Leader Martin, 3b; Rep. Fish, N. Y., 1b; Sen. Mead, N. Y., 2b; Sen. Walgren, Wash., c; Sen. Taft, Ohio, lf; Sen. LaFollette, Wis., cf; Sen. Davis, Pa., rf; Sen. Byrd, Va., sf. Nine Old Men: Gene Sarazen, ss; Lowell Thomas, rf; Gene Tunney, c; Babe Ruth, 1b; Walter Johnson, p; Jack Dempsey, 2b; Father Flanagan, sf; Bob Ripley, lf; Jim Farley, cf; Graham McNamee, 3b.

NATIONAL OPEN GOLF TOURNAMENT OPENS TODAY

Fort Worth, Texas, June 5.—(AP)—Golf's greatest extravaganza—the National Open—started today in the cow country of Texas, the links-mad state which produced a band of professionals ranked as favorites to conquer the Colonial club course.

All records attendant to the tournament teetered as the field cautiously spread over the par 35-70 layout, which has had the nation's finest golfers muttering through practice rounds.

Apparently the only mark which might make a stand was the scoring record of 281 held by slope-shouldered Ralph Guldahl.

Installed as the No. 1 favorite was lean Byron Nelson, former Fort Worth caddy whose string-straight game appeared made to order for the baffling course.

Close behind was Benry Hogan, another local product who is leading the Vardon trophy race and in money won this year.

Other Texans in the running were: Jimmy Demaret, who toted bags around Houston courses in early youth; the Mangrum brothers, Lloyd and Ray; Dick Metz; and Guldahl, who twice has won the title.

The scramble actually appeared wide open, but general opinion held that no dark horse would slip in, because of Colonial's premium on accuracy.

The talk was all about the Texan and Lawson Little, defending champion; Gene Sarazen, the country squire from Connecticut who breezed around in two-under-par 68 yesterday; Sammy Sneed, playing well despite an ailing back; Craig Wood, another "cripple"; and Paul Runyan, usually poison on a demanding links.

CARDINALS LOSE, DODGERS CLIMB BACK INTO LEAD

Difference Between Two Teams May Be Located At Second Base

By GAYLE TABLOT

Associated Press Sports Writer

Simply by staying in out of the wet while their chief rivals were fumbling themselves into defeat, the Brooklyn Dodgers have climbed back into the leadership of the National League.

Larry MacPhail's "Boughten" Wonders are a half-game in front of the St. Louis Cardinals, who dropped a 4 to 2 decision to the Boston Braves in one of the three games played in the big leagues yesterday and tumbled from the top for the first time since May 19.

It marked the fifth defeat for the Cardinals in their last six games and dropped their pennant prospects to a new low for the season. It was not so much that they lost to the lowly Braves as it was the manner of their losing.

The Cards' infield, regarded by many observers as the one questionable spot in an otherwise great team, committed three errors to present the Braves with the same number of unearned runs and the margin of victory. Rookie Frank Crespi made two of them at second base and Jimmy Brown bobbed up with another at third.

Smoother Second Baseman

If Brooklyn does finally beat St. Louis to the finish line in this hot National League race, some experts say it will happen only because the Dodgers' Billy Herman is a little smoother and more experienced than the Cardinals' Crespi around second base. That is how closely the two leaders appear to be matched at this stage.

Johnny Mize's big bat still is being missed from the Card lineup. They made nine hits yesterday off Art Johnson, the Boston rookie, but probably wouldn't have scored at all if Johnson had covered first more spryly on Enos Slaughter's infield single after two were out in the sixth. The Braves rapped Harry Gumbert for 11 hits and handed him his first defeat since joining the Cards.

All the other National League contests were washed out by a general rain in the east, and on only two American League games escaped the downpour.

Wallop Washington

The St. Louis Browns, playing their last game under Manager Fred Haney, walloped the unfortunate Washington Senators 7 to 4 and thereby climbed to the dizzy height of seventh place in the American League. Luke Sewell, their new pilot, can never claim he was saddled with a last-place outfit. President Don Barnes' timing was perfect, if slightly peculiar.

Johnny Berardino's triple with the bases filled climaxed a four-run rally in the seventh that sank the Senators.

Under the lights at Comiskey park last night, the Chicago White Sox observed "Connie Mack" night by walloping his Philadelphia Athletics 6-1, behind the five-hit pitching of Thornton Lee.

A crowd of 32,659 turned out to honor Philadelphia's 78-year-old manager, presenting him with a gold plaque and a watch during the pre-game ceremonies.

Lee's victory, his seventh of the season, lifted the Sox to within a game of the first place Cleveland Indians in the American League.

REDS MAY BE IN FIFTH PLACE BUT McKECHNIE IS NOT DOWN IN THE MOUTH ABOUT IT YET

Philadelphia, June 5.—(AP)—Don't get the idea that Deacon Bill McKechnie is down in the mouth these days with his World Champion Cincinnati Reds in fifth place 11½ games behind the leading Brooklyn and St. Louis clubs.

Of course his star hitter Frank McCormick is batting a mere .230. His great Third Sacker Bill Werber is in the hospital for observation because of water on the knee and the rest of the outfit isn't hitting enough to scare a cat off the back fence.

But McKechnie is cheerful—one might even say enthusiastic—over the Reds' chances. Just ask if there's any hope of retaining the National League pennant and hear him go to town.

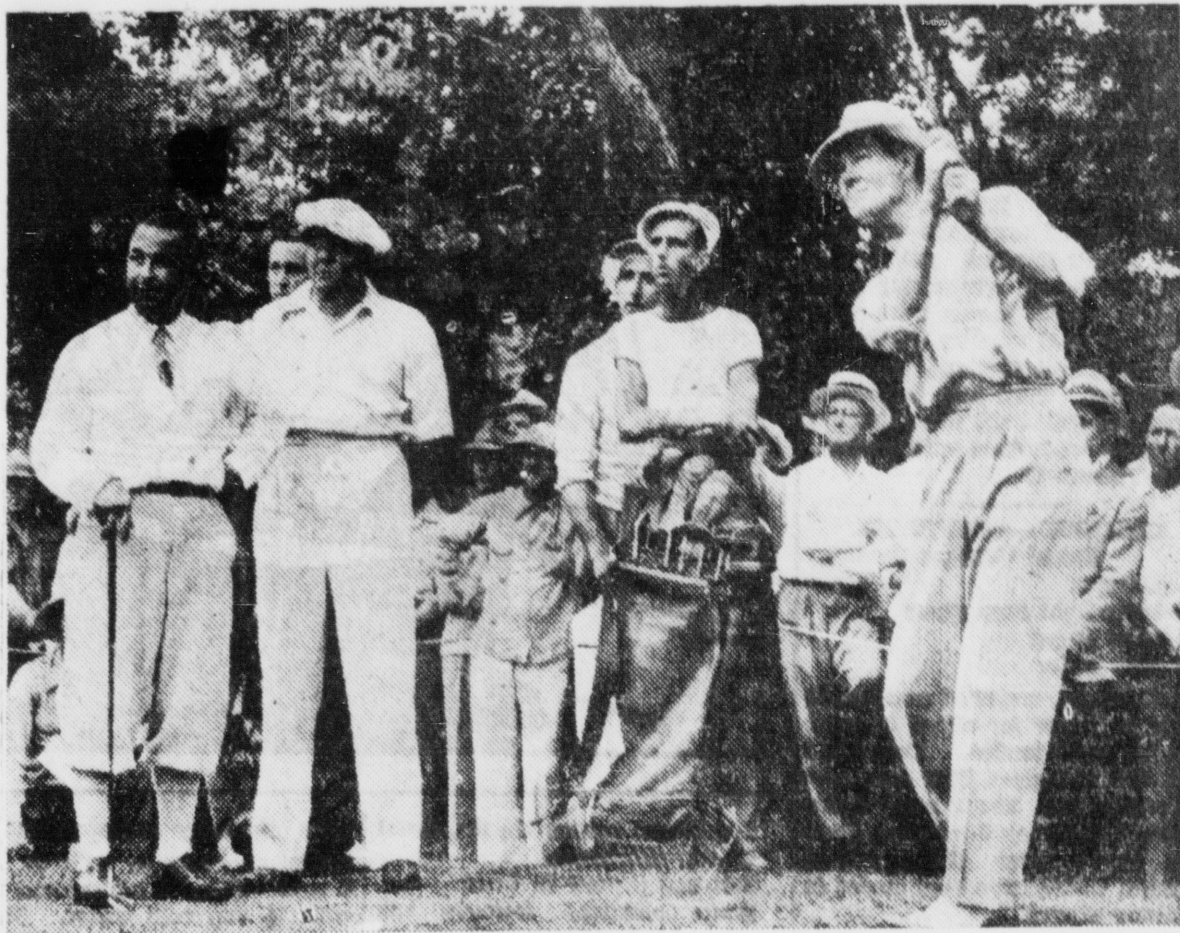

"I should say we have," declares Bill. "Look back at the records. We always get hot the latter part of the season when the weather gets hot. That's when we play our best ball."

"We'll get started. My club looks fine now. And if Thompson and Vander Meer can team along with Walters and Deringer, we'll be right up there."

What about the Dodgers and Cards?

"They're two fine clubs but they haven't hit a real slump yet. That's when our fine pitching and tight defense will tell."

AUTO RACES AT STERLING NEXT SUNDAY

Sterling, Ill., June 5: Big time auto racing comes back to this section of the country Sunday, June 8, at Speedbowl Park's new half mile speed strip. Big cars will establish new records for the new track which is just being completed. Time trials start shortly after noon with the first racing event scheduled for 3 p. m. sharp. The races are being sponsored by the Transcontinental Speed Attractions, of which organization Tom J. Slattery is president. Fans in this section of the country are promised the best possible speed attractions at the lowest possible cost.

Sterling's track is the only track in the midwest holding auto races Sunday, June 8, and that means that all of the "hot iron" will head into this city. Slim Rutherford of Whiting, Ind., an outstanding national figure in independent auto racing heads the list of drivers who will compete here. He won 19 out of 26 starts last year. Other stars include Don Mac of Gary, Ind., who has raced from coast to coast. Jack Ketter of Quincy, Ill., Frank Ardner of Chicago, "Handsome" Bob Bauer of Indianapolis, the ladies' choice, Walter Trevelyan of Davonport, and many others. The races will be run on a dustless track.

The program calls for time trials, a two-lap match race between the two fastest cars; a four-lap invitation event with reverse start; three six-lap elimination races; a special event to be announced later; an eight-lap consolation race and a 15-lap final. What a program of racing!

IT'S INDIANA, NOTRE DAME AGAINST FIELD IN ANNUAL COLLEGIATE TRACK MEET

Milwaukee, June 5.—(AP)—It will be Indiana and Notre Dame against the field in the 16th annual Central Collegiate track and field championships at Marquette university stadium tomorrow.

The big Hoosier schools rate as co-favorites in a record field of 40 schools from 15 states which will compete.

Indiana rated its position because of strength displayed in taking the Big Ten championship. Notre Dame was favored because it boasted a dual met victory over Indiana and won the central indoor meet last winter.

Potential record breakers included Bill Lyda of Oklahoma and Roy Cochran of Indiana in the 440 yard run; Campbell Cane, Indiana, in the half-mile; Jim Delaney, Notre Dame, and Archie Harris, Indiana in the discus and Harold Stickle, Pittsburgh in the low hurdles.

Marquette, the defending champion, has little chance of repeating, due to injuries and withdrawals from the squad this spring. Wisconsin probably will send only a small squad because the meet interferes with examinations.

BULLS AND PITCHERS THEY'RE JUST ALIKE

Los Angeles.—It may not be very flattering to pitchers, but Rodolfo Gaona, great Mexican bullfighter, sees some similarity to his tactics in the ring and a baseball batter at the home plate.

"Every bull is different," he says. "They must be hit or thrust at differently."

In his active career Gaona killed 2,000 bulls. He has never faced a pitcher.

Sports Roundup By EDDIE BRIETZ

New York, June 5.—(The Special News Service)—Lou Gehrig always had a horror of public funerals, so his own was private. And the Yankees already have had one suggestion to call it Gehrig stadium from now on. . . . Letters to friends here say Hans Kolhaus, the German boxer who helped Max Schmeling train for the first Louis fight, was killed in the Panzer attack on Holland.

Dots and Dashes

Youngest starter in the open down at Fort Worth today will be 15-year-old Tyrrell Garth, Jr., of Beaumont. And Gene Dahlbender of Atlantic, who pokes his drives 300 yards, is only 17. . . . Ford C. Frick and William C. Harridge, presidents of the National American Leagues, are very much in favor of turning the Cincinnati-Cleveland exhibition game at Cooperstown next week into a memorial to Lou Gehrig. . . . They figure the open crown is worth about 20 grand per year to the winner, although Sam Sneed has topped that figure for the last four years without the title.

Today's Guest Star

Joe Blenkle, Idaho Falls Post-Register: "The Reds are losing with such regularity it looks like the experts had 'em sized up correctly last spring. . . . They told everyone the Reds were the team to beat. . . . and brother, that's what the other teams are doing."

Interesting People

THREE-EYE LEAGUE HAS NIGHT FOR "UNDERDOGS"

(By The Associated Press)

The Three Eye League observed "underdog" night last night and the thrashings inflicted on the favored teams brought a general reshuffling of the circuit standings.

Decatur's Commies zoomed upward from fourth place to first by whipping the erstwhile leader, Evansville, in both ends of a double-header, 3 to 0 in seven innings, and 5 to 4 in 13 frames. Roman Roh blanked the Bees on four hits in the short game. The Bees tied the score with three runs in the eighth inning of the second contest, but the Commies squeezed through in the 13th.

Springfield dropped from second to fifth place, bowing in a doubleheader to Moline's basement crew, 6 to 2 and 13 to 3. Cedar Rapids climbed into a third-place tie with Madison by whipping the Wisconsin nine, 11 to 10, in a raggedly-played slugfest, each team making four errors.

Waterloo, paced by Hajduk's two-run homer, defeated Clinton, 6 to 5, the outcome dropping the losers into seventh and pulling Waterloo up into sixth.

LUKE SEWELL IS NEW BOSS OF ST. LOUIS

St. Louis, June 5.—(AP)—Affable Luke Sewell, veteran American league catcher and Cleveland Indians coach, stepped into the frying pan today as manager of the floundering St. Louis Browns. He was signed to a two-year contract last night, replacing Fred Haney in a swift move aimed at improving the miserable plight of the club that was expected to be the surprise team of the junior circuit this season. Haney had been manager since the start of the 1939 season.

A change of pilots had been rumored for several days, but the announcement by President Donald Barnes caught even newsmen by surprise. It came less than two hours after the Browns had won their second straight game from Washington to move out of the cellar into seventh place.

Terms of the contract, to run through 1942, were not disclosed, but Barnes said: "Something had to be done this way things were going and I believe we got the right man."

.... Takes Over Immediately .... Luke took over immediately and said he expected to be coaching at third base this afternoon. Obviously overjoyed with the promotion, the 40-year-old Sewell conferred at length with Barnes and associates over plans for rejuvenating the club but said he contemplated "no revolutionary changes" either among players or the coaching staff—at least not at present.

Haney, who took his dismissal good naturedly, predicted the club would finish in fourth or fifth place.

"It's too good a ball club to be down on the bottom," he said, "and I'm glad to see a fellow like Sewell get the job."

Haney said he had no immediate plans.

Sewell jumped directly into the major leagues from Alabama university in 1921 and has played with Cleveland, Washington, the Chicago White Sox and Brooklyn.

NEARLY SCORE REGISTER FOR WOMEN'S WESTERN TOURNEY

Cincinnati, June 5.—(AP)—Nearly a score of top-flight players already have registered for the Western Women's Open golf championship match starting Monday over rolling hills of the swank Cincinnati Country club course.

The 5,887 yard course, rated one of the midwest's trickiest, is in prime condition as the result of recent rains. Women's par is 73.

Standouts entered include: Mildred "Babe" Didrickson Zaharias, California champion; Betty Jameson of San Antonio, Tex., national amateur titlist; Patty Berg of St. Paul, former national amateur champ; Helen Detweiler of St. Louis; Helen Hicks Harb of Blue Hills, Mo., former amateur and pro title-holder; Mrs. Opal Hill, also of Blue Hills; Louise Sugg of Atlanta, Ga.; Dorothy Kirby of Capitol City, Ga., runner-up in 1939 amateur play; Marjorie Miley of Lexington, Ky., Mary Agnes Wahl of Menominee, Mich.

More than one-half the 212 public airports in cities of 25,000 population or more are owned and operated by the municipal governments.

It takes about 163,000,000 miles of wire annually to supply the 160,000,000 needs of the U. S. products ranging from office paper clips to piano strings.

Special taxes on tobacco, collected by the states, increased from $12,600,000 in 1931 to about $97,100,000 in 1940.

POLO SELECTS WESLEYAN STAR AS NEW COACH

Clyde Peterson, graduate of Illinois Wesleyan university and for two years coach at Winslow high school has been named as polo coach of the new Tri-County polo community high school to succeed Owen J. Rolston, it has been announced by the board of education.

Peterson was graduated from 1939 with eight varsity awards. In the fall of 1936 he was regular halfback on the conference championship football squad.

As a result of his athletic record at Wesleyan, Peterson was elected to the Order of the Titans, an honorary athletic group on the campus and the following year was a candidate for the Chicago Tribune's all-star team. He was Wesleyan baseball captain in 1938.

Peterson has been coaching at Winslow since his graduation from college. With Mrs. Peterson, he will move to Polo about the middle of August.

Owen J. Rolston, whom Peterson succeeds, will remain at Polo high school as teacher of manual arts.

Weekly Food and Marketing Letter by Mrs. Emily M. Lautz for Dixon Telegraph Readers

Although the modern home-maker considers appetite-appeal throughout the year, the emphasis in chilly seasons is on substantial dishes. Spring and summer call for extra care and thought in planning tempting meals—and of course eye-appeal means color.

Successful chefs and tea room managers deliberately plan these attractive special plates on muggy days when the appetite is as listless as the weather. It is no accident that a salad of green asparagus tips, thin hard-cooked egg slices and bright red tomato is arranged carefully on crisp chickory and watercress. We can all profit from studying such color schemes and can learn, too, from the restaurant trick of serving the dressing in a small paper cup on the side, rather than mixing it into "stirred up" and far less appetizing.

Salads belong to all seasons, yet they do seem particularly suited to warm days. It is noticeable that men who once scoffed at salad plates choose them regularly at luncheon. You will notice that they favor study vegetable salads, rather than the mixed fruit, or fruit and cottage cheese combinations, which appeal to feminine lunchers. A popular plate in one grill that caters to men has a circle of fresh shrimps and sliced tomato on greens, with the chosen dressing in a center cup.

When your main dinner dish is a rich roast and gravy, include sliced tomato in the salad, even when it is spread simply on chilled watercress. By the way, watercress is nearly as rich in Vitamin C as grass—so use it generously.

The expert chef maintains that a salad is only as good as its dressing. Consider the tastes of your family and guests before blending your dressing—which also should be suited to the balance of the meal and the time of day. The usual rule for French dressing is three tablespoons of oil to one of vinegar, although many authorities simply say "twice as much oil as vinegar". Wine vinegar is preferred by hosts of salad lovers, but others are switching now to sample the fascinating collection of spiced and seasoned vinegars on the market.

These vinegar infusions achieve vigorous flavor without losing freshness and bouquet, and are delicious added to salads, hot and cold vegetables, and even hors d'oeuvres. One house alone puts out five vinegars—mixed herb, garlic, basil, marjoram and mint, the mint vinegar being just the thing to rub into the leg of lamb and loin lamb chops.

Folks who like to mix their own, rub the wooden bowl first with garlic. Into the dry bowl then go salt, pepper and a bit of dry English mustard. The vinegar is poured in next and the mixture stirred until it is smooth. Olive oil is added last, when the dressing is stirred steadily with a wooden salad fork until it is perfectly emulsified.

Such a basic dressing can be varied endlessly. For surprise flavor, substitute a fleck of curry powder for the mustard and use tarragon vinegar. After French dressing is mixed, add variety with finely cut parsley or chives, or a mixture of chopped pickles and green pepper.

Mayonnaise can be treated to surprises, too, after its original blending. Whip in 1 to 2 tablespoons finely cut parsley or chives, fine cutting with sharp shears gives a better color effect than chopping. One teaspoon of chervil (a milder, slightly peppery parsley) is a novel addition. Chervil is used with great enthusiasm by the French, who regard it as standard in salad, for egg and poultry dishes, for sorrel and spinach soups.

A touch of red on hot or cold vegetable plates, or with assorted cold cuts, is just as provocative as vivid greens. Coming into fresh appreciation is a specialty once reserved for cold weather garnishing, bright red cranberry sauce. Now that cranberry products are available in convenient cans, the horizon of cranberry uses has steadily widened to include three meals a day, starting with cranberry juice at breakfast.

This food has patriotic appeal for cranberry growing and harvesting is a typically all-American industry. Three-fourths of the nation's cranberries grow on Cape Cod in Massachusetts, the remainder in New Jersey, Wisconsin and a few in Oregon. At harvest time berries not needed for immediate canning are quickly frozen in grower-owned freezing plants and held at low temperature until needed. Following the holidays, when inventory stocks are depleted, berries are withdrawn from freezers and canned. Freezing "arrests" the cranberries at flavor peak, thus making possible fresh-pack cranberry sauce the year round.

In buying canned cranberry sauce, look for dark red color, which means vine-ripened cranberries. Brown-colored sauce denotes old pack or faulty preparation. Nutrition authorities are suggesting that thick wedges of cranberry sauce may take the place of an extra vegetable, since this food is strong in minerals and vitamins, even boasting iodine.

A new party inspiration is the use of special cutters for jellied cranberry sauce, giving a decorative effect on individual luncheon plates. I even saw a baked Eastern ham surrounded by a parade of cranberry bunnies, cut with a plastic bunny cutter.

When you use cut-outs, don't waste the ruby crumbs. Crush them with a fork and serve on breakfast toast, as a change from marmalade or jam; or add the bits to your favorite muffin batter or place them on top of each muffin, just before baking.

The Fishery Council in New York City claims the distinction of discovering cranberry sauce as the ideal accompaniment for all forms of fish. The council points out that the sauce meets the two important requirements of a fish garnish, color and tartness. Wedges of the sauce garnish baked or broiled fish, or a fish-shaped cutter will produce a professional garnish. Mashed and heated to boiling, the sauce is poured over golden brown codfish balls.

Here is a tempting, easily-prepared recipe for Halibut Au Gratin, which may be prepared in scallop shells or in a baking utensil:

Halibut au Gratin
2 cups cooked halibut or other white meat fish
2 cups medium-thick white sauce
2 cups grated American cheese
Salt and pepper

Pick over halibut, being sure to remove all bones. Keep in as many chunks as possible. Grate the cheese. Season white sauce well with salt and pepper and add two-thirds of the cheese to it, stirring until cheese melts and sauce is smooth. Place halibut in buttered baking dish and pour over it. Sprinkle with remaining cheese.

Bake in moderate oven 35 degrees F. until well-browned; cheese on top should melt. Serve with sections of jellied cranberry sauce. Serves 4 to 6.

Let's make it a colorful season, three meals a day!

SULTRY DAY TREATS

Frozen Fruit Salad
4 ounces cream cheese
3 tablespoons mayonnaise
2 tablespoons honey
1 cup pitted white cherries
3 slices pineapple
1-2 pint whipping cream
Mix cream with mayonnaise, add honey and mix well. Add cherries and pineapple and fold in whipped cream. Place in dish in freezing tray. Serve with this dressing.

Honey French Dressing
1-2 cup honey
1 cup salad oil
1-2 teaspoon salt
1-3 cup chili sauce
1-2 cup vinegar
1 medium onion, grated

1 tablespoon of Worcestershire sauce

Place all ingredients in a quart jar and shake well. Serve this dressing on the lettuce salad and place a portion of the frozen salad on top. This dressing is delicious with many other salads.

Jellied Grapefruit Salad
1 No. 2 can grapefruit sections
1 package lemon gelatine
1 tablespoon lemon juice
Dash salt
2 tablespoons pimiento, chopped
1-3 cup diced celery

Drain grapefruit sections and add water and juice to make 1 and 3-4 cups. Heat the liquid. Dissolve lemon-flavored gelatine in hot water and grapefruit juice mixture. Add lemon juice and salt. Chill until slightly thickened. Add grapefruit sections, pimiento and celery. Turn into individual molds and chill until firm. Unmold and serve on lettuce with mayonnaise. Serves 6.

COLORFUL SURPRISES

Baked Oranges
6 oranges
3-4 cup light corn syrup
2 cups sugar
2 cups water

Boil whole, unpeeled oranges in water to cover for about 30 minutes, or until tender. Drain and cool. Cut in halves. Mix corn syrup, sugar and the 2 cups water together and cook 5 minutes. Pour this syrup over the cooked oranges, which have been placed in a baking utensil.

Cover closely and bake 1-2 hours in moderate oven 350 degrees F. If the oranges are not completely covered with the syrup, baste frequently. Baked oranges may be served hot or cold as an accompaniment for roast poultry, for almost any meat except beef, or in salad form with cottage or cream cheese. Serves 6.

Nut Mallow Sweet Potato Balls
2 cups mashed sweet potatoes
Salt and pepper to taste
3 tablespoons melted butter
4 marshmallows
2 egg yolks
1 tablespoon cold water
1 cup chopped pecans or peanuts (unsalted)

Shortening
Use warm mashed potatoes; about 4 or 5 are needed. Season to taste and beat in butter. Shape into 4 balls with a marshmallow in the center of each. Beat egg yolks lightly with cold water, then roll in chopped nuts. Heat shortening in frying kettle to 365 degrees F. and fry in deep shortening until golden brown. Drain on absorbent paper. Serves 4.

2 chickens (about 1 1/2 lbs. each)
1/2 cup shortening
Salt and pepper to taste
Singe chickens. Remove any small pin feathers and scrub clean. Cut off neck close to breast and remove oil sack at base of back bone. Using a sharp knife and starting at the bottom, cut through the back bone for the entire length of the bird. Lay bird open; remove all organs, saving the heart, liver and gizzard. Next, start at the bottom of the breast bone and cut the chicken in half lengthwise. Wash thoroughly, rinse and dry.

Place halves of chicken in steamer section of large double cooker; pan below should be one-half full of cold water. Sprinkle each half with salt. Cover. Steam chicken 20 minutes, or until just tender, starting to count the time after the water in the bottom reaches boiling point.

Place necks, hearts, livers and gizzards in saucepan. Cover with water, sprinkle with salt and boil gently 45 minutes.

Melt shortening in large heavy fry pan; when bubbly add the steamed chicken and brown slowly over medium low heat to golden brown.

Gravy: Remove chicken from fry pan and remove giblets from sauce pan. Pour liquid from steamer pan and the giblet stock into fry pan. Stir well. Measure liquid, pour into large saucepan and add sufficient water or milk to make 3 cups. Blend 4 tablespoons flour with 1/2 cup cold water. Stir to smooth paste and add chicken liquor. Cook stirring constantly until mixture boils and is slightly thickened. Season to taste with salt and pepper. In serving, top each chicken half with 2 to 3 tablespoons gravy. Serves 4.

In 1930, the output of canned grapefruit was 115,000 cases. Today is it about 11,000,000 cases. Almost half of the entire grapefruit crop now reaches the market in the form of juice.

This is a banner year for Florida's Valencia oranges, a variety that comes close to being seedless. Other crops suffered serious setbacks from unfavorable weather this season, but conditions proved exactly right for the Valencia which is remarkably heavy with juice. The formula for ideal growing is a lot of rain, then a cool spell in which the golden liquid can accumulate in the fruit, and finally a burst of heat to ripen it.

George Christopher Schreck
George Christopher Schreck was born in Mannheim, Germany, on April 17, 1867, and passed away on Saturday, May 31, 1941 at the age of 74 years, one month and 14 days. He was an only child.

At the age of 15 years he and his mother came to America. All of his life was spent in or around Paw Paw, with the exception of about two years which was spent in Kirkwood, Illinois, where he was engaged in business.

He was united in marriage to Carrie L. Luce, February 23, 1892, and she preceded him in death March 4, 1938. Born to this union were four children, Lela Firkins of Shabbona, Illinois, Harriett Thorpe of Louisville, Ky., Ezra Schreck, who preceded him in death, Sept. 7, 1938, and Mildred Schreck of Louisville, Ky.

He was engaged in business in Paw Paw for about 40 years, retiring from business in 1938 because of poor health.

He was a member of the German Lutheran church in Mannheim, Germany, but was always a willing helper in the churches of Paw Paw. He was also a very active member of the I. O. O. F. Anchor Lodge in Paw Paw.

He was active in the welfare and progress of the community in which he lived. He had a large circle of friends and was liked by all.

For the past three years he was confined to his home by illness and was under the splendid care of his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Mabel Schreck, and his daughter, Mildred Schreck.

He is survived by his three daughters, as mentioned above, also one daughter-in-law, Mrs. Mabel Schreck, four grandchildren, George Sheldon, Dionne, Marilyn and Janet Firkins of Shabbona, Ill.

Services were held at the Torman Funeral home, Tuesday, June 3, 1941 at 2:00 o'clock. The Rev. Herman Meyer, pastor of the Paw Paw Baptist church officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nangle sang two beautiful numbers, "Good Night and Good Morning" and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere."

The flowers were many and very beautiful.

Those from out of town attending the funeral services were: Mr. and Mrs. William Stroyan and Irve Zeibarth of DeKalb, Mr. and Mrs. John Fitzgerald, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Hallam, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith, Mrs. Ed Duffy, Mrs. Clifford Challand, Mrs. Don Flewellin, Mrs. Lane Clapsaddle, and Floyd Olmstead of Shabbona, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Firkins and Mr. and Mrs. Alden Firkins of Rolo.

(By The Associated Press)

Randolph Field, Tex.—A non-commissioned officer who does clerical work was waiting a chance to get a ride home on one of Uncle Sam's training planes.

He heard a lieutenant reserve a "link trainer" for a cross country hop to Kansas City at 1 p. m. The non-com packed a bag and rushed to the hangar.

There he learned, to his dismay, that a "link trainer" is an abbreviated plane mounted on a stand and used for blind navigation practice. It never leaves its pedestal.

Fort Jackson, S. C.—Private Fred Garraabrant was ordered to investigate a mysterious light beyond the crest of a hill near the "battle line" during a maneuver.

Using his new woodcraft, he crawled silently through the underbrush—and presently found himself stalking the rising moon.

Fort Bliss, Tex.—Clara Bell, dog mascot of B Troop, first medical squadron, is in the dog house. She chased a general.

Then, quick as a thrust of the sword of retributive justice, came Troop order No. 13. Read:

"Effective this date Major Corporal Clara Bell is reduced to the grade of private non-sufficient; also to be deprived of one (1) bone per day for a period of seven (7) days, and to be restricted to the post for a period of one (1) month."

Walnut Student at Cornell to Enlist
(Telegraph Special Service)

Mount Vernon, Iowa, June 5—Of the 610 students now on the Cornell college campus, approximately half of whom are men, 118 from the junior and senior classes are eligible for the draft. Many in anticipation of that possibility, have already taken steps to enlist in the various branches of the service. Among those from the vicinity of Dixon, Ill., are: Arthur Behl of the class of '41 of Lanark, who is now at the naval air base at Pensacola, Fla., as naval air cadet; Frank Nelick of Walnut, a senior, who has passed the examinations and will enter the marine officers' training course.

As conscription time approaches others will take steps to enlist in various branches of the service. Of the 118 eligibles on the Cornell campus, 66 were registered in the fall draft, and 52 more will have turned 21 years of age by the time the summer registration is taken.

Release Batch 4678"

THERE'S DRAMA in the food business. Plenty of it. Take this incident as example—

In a food factory, thousands upon thousands of pounds of vegetable shortening are waiting to be packaged and shipped to A&P Stores and Super Markets in more than twenty states. Railway cars and trucks are ready to roll at a moment's notice. But not one pound of shortening may leave the factory until a signal to do so arrives from a point some eight hundred miles away.

That signal will come from a modern, scientifically equipped food laboratory where a staff of food chemists patiently analyzes samples from the lot of shortening that waits in the factory.

Why are these tests conducted on every batch of A&P's dextro—a first quality, 100% pure hydrogenated vegetable shortening—when it is made of only the most carefully selected ingredients, based on a perfected formula...and every step of its making supervised with the greatest diligence? A final laboratory O.K. is required simply because A&P wants to be doubly sure of the uniform quality of everything sold in A&P Stores under its famous brand names!

Yet, in spite of emphasis placed on goodness in all things A&P offers under its brands, prices are surprisingly low... from 5% to 25% lower than many, many products of comparable quality in other national brands. The reason? A&P brings these things to its customers on a "factory-to-consumer" basis that cuts many unnecessary expenses and profits from the usual method of distributing foods. These savings are shared with A&P customers.

Then, too, there is another reason for A&P's low prices: It's that new kind of food stores... the A&P Super Markets. Because these food department stores sell 5 to 15 times as much as average A&P Stores of a few years ago, their expense for doing business is lower—and thus their prices are lower*, too.

*A&P Super Markets keep their prices low throughout all departments... every day of the week. Thus if you shop for all your food needs in them, you naturally save on your entire grocery bill.

'Parity' Prices of Many Products of Farmer Surpassed

Important Items Have Gained From 6 to 56 Per Cent in Year

Chicago, June 5—(AP)—Farm commodity prices, followed closely by food costs to consumers, are spinning in an upward spiral that has eclipsed government "minimums" and "parity" levels in some cases.

Remembering the pattern of rising prices in war-time 25 years ago, important agricultural items have gained 6 to 56 per cent since this time last year when the low point was reached after the collapse of France, market statistics showed today.

Much of the advance has occurred since the first of the year and, more specifically, since passage of the lend-lease act and initiation of government efforts to accumulate foods for the British. Food prices received by farmers and paid by consumers generally are the highest since 1937. They are only slightly below the 1937 peak which stands as the highest since 1930.

Expenses Increased Prices of commodities and services used by farmers likewise have risen, increasing "parity" levels of the products of agriculture. "Parity" is regarded as the price which gives a commodity purchasing power equivalent to that of the 1909-14 base period.

Of 17 important farm products, near "parity" or above "parity" prices have been reached by more than half. The rise, accelerated in recent months of expanded domestic consumer demand and shipments abroad, has been sharp in the case of butter, cheese, eggs and hogs.

The Chicago wholesale price of butter has risen from about 26 cents a year ago to 35 cents a pound, cheese from 14 to 19 cents, eggs from 16 to 25 cents a dozen and hogs from $5 a hundred-weight to around $9.40 average.

Minimums Surpassed Two months ago the government announced that to stimulate production of hogs, dairy products and eggs it would try to maintain prices at $9 for hogs, 31 cents for butter, 22 cents for eggs and 15 cents for chickens. All these prices have been surpassed.

Rice, beef cattle, chickens, wool, veal calves and lambs are above "parity". Apples, hogs, eggs and butterfat are near "parity". Cotton and grains, which have risen rather sharply recently due to prospects of high government loan rates, are still well below.

Pupils of Steward Spend Day Seeing Sights in Chicago

Today is a red letter day for high and grade school students at Steward, for both groups accompanied by faculty teachers and many of the heads of families, left this morning for their annual all day outing and picnic in Chicago, where they selected their own method of entertainment until the noon hour.

At 12 o'clock the schedule provided that they assemble at Jackson park where a picnic dinner was to be served. This afternoon they were guests at the Comiskey park to see the White Sox-Philadelphia Athletics baseball game. This evening they will motor out to a park at St. Charles where a picnic supper will be enjoyed and then will proceed to their homes.

Commencement Friday

The 1941 graduating class consists of eleven, who will receive their diplomas Friday evening at the annual commencement exercises at the Steward high school auditorium. Dr. Karl Adams, president of the Northern Illinois State Teachers' College at DeKalb will deliver the commencement address after which Principal J. M. Thompson will present diplomas to the following graduates: Dale Kirby, Vernon Arne, Robert O'Rourke, Dorothy Strawbridge, Lucille Parsley, Paul Cave, Archie Rainwater, Mary Alice Lawson, Robert Cook, Marie O'Donnell and Ruth Mae Bontjes.

The pupils of the Steward grade schools accompanied by both teachers and parents, left Steward this morning with well filled lunch baskets and went to the Brookfield zoo to spend the day.

WANTED AS GUEST JUDGE

Washington — (AP)— Federal Judge Charles H. Briggie of the Southern Illinois district was invited to preside in District of Columbia courts from June 23 to July 12 to help relieve a crowded calendar during the vacation period.

CHERRY BANK DIVIDEND

Chicago—(AP)—State Auditor Arthur C. Lueder authorized the State Bank of Cherry to pay a dividend of 15 per cent, amounting to $9,181.65, on deposits waived following the 1933 moratorium.

PERPETUAL CITIZENSHIP

Lafayette was granted perpetual American citizenship for himself and his descendants for his aid in the Revolutionary War. His descendants still hold the privilege.

tury ago, U. S. food prices did not begin to rise strongly until the middle of the second year.
